Name: _____ Date: _____

Practice

Latin Roots

Many Latin roots serve as foundations for families of words. For example, the root vis comes from a Latin word that means "to see." The words vision, visit, and visible all relate to seeing.

The root aud comes from a Latin word that means "to hear." Read the definitions below. Then write a word that begins with aud to go with each definition.

audition audio auditorium
audience

1. people who are gathered to hear something such as music _____

2. the sound on a TV or other equipment _____

3. a tryout to hear an actor or singer _____

4. a large room for listening to concerts, speakers, or plays _____

Write two other words in the aud word family and their definitions. Use the dictionary to check your words.

5. _____

6. _____

© Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Publishing Company