

Summarize 1

When you tell a friend about the plot of a book or an article you've read, you are giving a summary. A summary is a short statement that tells the most important ideas in your own words. Use this chart to help you identify important ideas or details. Then put them together into a summary.

Passage: _____

